AN EXCITING NEW SUBSCRIPTION OFFER EXCLUSIVELY FOR READERS OF MAD MAGAZINE!

An extraordinary opportunity to own the official MAD Pin Collection!

A Brief History of the MAD Pin Collection

In late 1990, MAD publisher William Melfred Burns suggested Plasma Pictures' Dennis Gifford Jr. that there should be an official MAD Pin Collection and ordered that various sections from around the world be evaluated, see who would work the cheapest to create these objects of art.

Unaware of all of jewelry-making history, we broke the mold before we cast these pins:

Each official MAD Pin is precision crafted by masters that are turned On and Off by hand!

Each Pin is cast in Space Age Alloy—the same Alloy used to make NASA space shuttle structural pins used by astronauts floating around Cape Canaveral!

The Official MAD Pin Collection smells like jewelry that costs thousands of dollars and can be mistaken for real gold or diamonds over 500 meters though at shorter distances they may be mistaken for a fox of other things!

These Pins will not be sold in any store—see below we tried getting up our nerve we could find no seller and nobody would touch them!

Due to the special nature of this offer, the number of Official MAD Pins commissioned shall never exceed the demand! (In the event of a tie, all production will cease! That's our commitment to quality!)

These are the very same Pins that will be offered by us again and again and again in future issues of MAD Magazine!

An Important Reminder! Each Official MAD Pin is so valuable it will be personally delivered to your home by an official United States Government Employee, dressed like a mailman!

This offer is neither endorsed nor in any way connected to the Franklin Mint, Benjamin Franklin, Joe Franklin or Franklin Delano Roosevelt!

AND THEY CALL IT PUPPY LOVE?

Well, it's obvious that you guys have never had a dog, since on page 39 of issue #303 "A MAD Guide to How Simple Things Work Part II," you refer to a male dog as "in heat." Only FEMALE dogs have a "heat" cycle! Male dogs are always "in the mood!"

Jerry Greenberg
Bronx, NY

Oh yeah? If you're so smart, then answer us this: if male dogs don't go into heat, then where do we get hot dogs from? —Ed.

NICK—AT NIGHT

I just read the letters section in issue #302 about MAD Co-Editor Nick Meglin appearing on the TV show thirtysomething. What kind of nonsense is this? If Nick did appear on the show, why didn't they kill him off and let Gary live?

Toni Adams
Santa Barbara, CA

It's true, Toni! Nick appeared on this season's "costume party" episode of thirtysomething, as these photos of him and Tim (Elliott) Busfield prove. Actually, since Nick's appearance, other cast members refer to Gary as "Mr. Lucky!" Watch for Nick (looking only slightly more animated than he does here) when the episode is rerun!

A LETTER FROM THE SIMPSONS

THE SIMPSONS™

Dear Clods,

Thanks for putting me on the cover of your magazine. I haven't read the article yet, but Maggie seems to be enjoying it.

Sincerely,

Bart Simpson

This letter and original artwork from The Simpsons recently arrived in our mailbox. Oddly, while Maggie was busying herself with another under-achieving issue of MAD, Bart and Lisa were parked in front of their TV set, engrossed in another hilarious episode of The Cosby Show! Go figure!

FRIEND OF WILDLIFE?

As a hunter, trapper and fisherman, I was very disappointed to see your anti-hunting and anti-trapping comments in MAD #302 ("Babar's Final Adventure") and "The Lighter Side"). Your articles showed the same naive and narrow-minded views about wildlife that most animal-rights people have. This is an issue that you know little about, and until you print articles like "The Lighter Side of Overpopulated and Starving Animals" or have Duck Edwing do some cartoons about fox and mink dying from mange, I suggest you stay away from it.

Jonathan Carson
Chosebury, WI

Jon boy—We have printed articles like the ones you suggest. It's obvious you missed MAD #274, from which the following panel is reproduced! —Ed.

MORON MAIL

Oh boy! Oh boy! I love lemonade, don't you?

Mike—That isn't lemonade.—Ed.

What do Flashdance, Dirty Dancing and the following film have in common? The fact that they all have the word "dance" in the title? No...The fact that they were all spoofed in MAD by artist Mort Drucker and writer Stan Hart? No...Perhaps it's that in each of these films the star dances with a dangerous hairy animal? Close...but still not the "Bingo!" answer. How about that none of these films dealt seriously with the plight of the American Indian? Bingo! Here's...

DUN

ICES WITH WOLVES

ARTIST: MORT DRUCKER

WRITER: STAN HART

This wagon driver is the filthiest, dirtiest, most disgusting smelling human being I have ever known! But then again, considering how lonely a man gets out here on the range, he is a great cuddler!

Come here often?

Dear Diary: I want to befriend a wolf who keeps visiting me! But he doesn't trust me yet! I think I know a way to break the Ice—by dancing!

Dear Diary: Today I saw some humans for the first time. They were some children playing "Cowboys and Indians." In their version, guess who won?

Dear Diary: I have found a wounded white woman who was dressed as a Sioux! I've heard of cases like this, where Indians raised a white child they found when it was young!

Dear Diary: I haven't seen a woman for many months, so I must struggle with a moral dilemma - should I do what any soldier who proudly wears the uniform of Uncle Sam would do, or should I leave her clothes on and not touch her?

Dear Diary: The stampeding buffalo is a magnificent spectacle to behold. It is sad that we will see nothing like this stampede again until "President's Day" sales in department stores many years from now!

ARTIST AND WRITER: DICK EDWARD

HEADS OF GRATE DEPT.

Question: Aside from sitting and scratching themselves on national TV, what do athletes in the NBA, the NFL and Major League Baseball have in common? Answer: Commissioners! Yep, from football to hockey to baseball to golf, every really big-time sport has a commissioner, a person who can arbitrate, mediate, dictate and investigate every situation, big or small. But if commissioners are such a good idea for organized professional sports, why shouldn't other well-established groups have their own commissioners? Something like the people that we have featured in this incredibly exciting and mentally stimulating feature entitled...

MAIN THAT TUNE DEPT.

Each year, millions of tiny kids are herded into day care centers and Sunday schools where they are commanded to join in the singing of traditional songs and carols before they are old enough to read and understand the lyrics. The result is tragically predictable. They sing the words they think they hear, and form a pattern that often lasts a lifetime. Many preoccupied grownups keep right on singing the same muddled words to the same songs in the same way. This, of course, makes us sound like a nation of idiots as we stand reverently at such somber events as patriotic rallies, church services and even baseball games to fill the air with...

AMERICA'S TUNES AS THEY SOUND

My Uncle, Liz And Me

My uncle, Liz and me

*Eat ham with liberty.
Oftea, we sing.*

*Ham that my father fried;
Ham when the children cried.*

*On every mountainside,
Let's clean 'til Spring.*

The Star Strangled Grandma

*No way can you see through this song's early light
What had sounded like hail at the night light's loud screaming.*

*Who brought tripe and Mars bars to the last Eastern flight
On the rampage with scotch while the gals were all steaming.*

*And our pockets were bare
When they first hit the air
As they proved we were right and our bags were still there.*

*No way does that star strangled Grandma smell Dave,
For the mandolin is free,
And our home is a cave.*

TRADITIONAL SONGS

ARTIST: PAUL COKER

WRITER: TOM KOCH

D TO FIVE-YEAR-OLDS

That Marine! Him!

*From the Halls of Minneso-ota
To the doors of misery,*

America, The Boot Is Full

*Your boot is full of spacey guys,
And candles made by Jane,*

*We will ride on grumpy ca-attle
In Iran and Italy.*

*From curdled mounds of macramé

*If the Army or the Navy
Ever look at magazines,*

America! America! Go shed your grapes on me.

*They will find the creeps with garden tools
Have been smashed to smithereens.*

*Your clown's no good at motherhood.
We'll see what we shall see.*

Some skeptics question, Is there a God? Some TV viewers question, If there is a God, how could he let a show like this get on the air? Of course, we're talking about...

Father

Hill! I'm Father Jowly! Welcome to my parish. Our Lady of Miraculous Clues! Sister Stevedore and I do the work of God, not to mention the police and the FBI! I guess you can call us a two-person Lord enforcement agency!

Right! Before I became a nun I used to lie, cheat and steal at will! But working together with Father Jowly has changed all that! Now when I lie, cheat and steal I do it in God's name!

I'm Merry, the housekeeper! I love to cook! Look at what I just made—roast turkey, stuffing, candied sweet potatoes, three kinds of vegetables, mince pie and home made ice cream. And that's just breakfast! Now for lunch...

ARTIST: ANGELO TORRES

Father Jowly, you've conducted only one baptism and three weddings in two years! How do you expect this church to support itself?

You forget, Monsignor, that Our Lady of Miraculous Clues leads the entire nation in the number of funeral masses!

That's only because most of the corpses in those funeral masses are the result of Sister Stevedore and you interfering with police business and getting a lot of innocent people killed!

I can vouch for that! My scrapbook has all the facts!

Scrapbook? Since when?

It's my schtick for this episode! They never know what to do with my character, so every week they contrive some new hobby or interest for me to dabble around with!

Jowly Miseries

Are you staring at me? Well, I'm Father Pestweak! I may be a strange, bumbling priest, but I'm responsible for winning thousands, perhaps millions of converts! They all converted to other religions, but hey, converts are converts, right?

We're the local police! You may think it's bad form for us to be playing cards while on duty, but there's nothing else for us to do in Chicago since the "Holy Duo" started their crusade on crime!

Stop talking to those idiots out there and play! I open for a quarter....

I'm Jessica Fletcher! No, I'm not in this series, but sometimes it's so similar to my show, Murder, She Wrote, I forget who I am and put on men's clothes! Evidently Father Jowly is against all crimes except plagiarism!

WRITER: DICK DEBARTOLO

I'm glad I've got my cooking schtick to fall back on! How would you like a little snack, Monsignor? I just whipped up a fresh pot of tea and a leg of lamb, mint jelly, three kinds of pasta...

Why don't you have bingo like other churches?

Bingo? Are you kidding? Bingo is a legal form of gambling! That's no fun!

How much was in Sunday's collection plate?

$220 and two pipe bombs!

That's down a bit, isn't it?
It's sad but true!
Last week it was five pipe bombs!

I'm very flattered you went through so much trouble to trap us! But why?

Are you kidding? Chicago's criminal world always had a great reputation in this country—if you two came on the scene! Now we're the laughing stock! With you out of the way, we can be back on top where we belong!

Hold it! You can't take a shot at Father Jowly unless you donate $250!

It's my new plan to raise money! We've already collected $30,000 and the plan's only been in action a week!

Father! Sister! I'm so glad I found you!

And who are you?

I'm their housekeeper, Merry! These folks haven't had a home-cooked meal in two hours! I've brought baked ziti, garlic bread, a thermos of cappuccino and...

Right, Father Jowly! I can hardly wait 'till our next caper! There's this cowboy outfit I saw in the donor clothing pile....

Sorry, but there isn't going to be a "next caper" for you two!

Michael Landon? From "Highway to Heaven"? Why on earth, if you pardon the pun, are you here?

God thought it was urgent that I came out of retirement for one more mission—to come and take both of you to that big re-run in the sky! Your dopey antics are giving Him a bad name!

Every year around Christmas, magazines are filled with articles about how millions of people suffer from Christmas depression (brought on, no doubt, by those very same articles!). Unlike

WHY WE GET THE

ARTIST: GEORGE WOODBRIDGE

Valentine's Day

... is the time of the year when our loved ones show their affection towards us by giving us a 20 lb. box of chocolate that's been sitting in a warehouse all year long.

Arbor Day

... is the time of the year when politicians who have passed legislation that's destroyed rivers and forests show their concern for ecology by planting a tree at a shopping mall.

President's Day

... is the time of the year when greedy store owners honor a President who never told a lie by running deceptive ads, and a President who freed the slaves by keeping American consumers in continual debt.

Memorial Day

... is the time of the year when television announcers tell us to drive carefully so that we can watch race-car drivers kill themselves during the Indianapolis 500.

other magazines, though, MAD would never print depressing articles about Christmas. No, we'd rather run a depressing article about every holiday! So get ready as we give you a rundown of...

HOLIDAY BLAHS

WRITER: BARRY LIEBMAN

St. Patrick's Day

...is the time of the year when we show our respect for Irish-Americans by getting stinking drunk in their honor and throwing up our guts at their parade.

Labor Day

...is the time of the year when we celebrate our last remaining days of vacation by going out and enduring endless traffic jams, or staying in and enduring twenty hours of Jerry Lewis.

Mother's and Father's Day

...are the times of the year when every piece of junk that can't be unloaded on anybody at any other time is advertised as being "perfect for both Mom and Dad."

Columbus Day

...is the time of the year when we commemorate a man who lost two boats and ended up totally off-course by keeping the post office closed.

Halloween

...is the time of the year when stories of ghosts, goblins, and things that go bump in the night pale next to stories about psychos poisoning Trick or Treat candy.

Veteran's Day

...is the time of the year when we show our appreciation to all the old soldiers who hated marching in 10-mile hikes by allowing them to march in 10-mile parades.

Christmas

...is the time of the year when parents have to explain why the same Santa who's so worried about kids being naughty or nice is urging them to smoke and drink in cigarette and liquor ads.

Election Day

...is the time of the year when we officially give someone who has spent $20 million to get a $100,000 job the chance to manage our money.

Thanksgiving

...is the time of the year when we honor the notion of sharing by recounting how the Indians fed the same people who would eventually steal their land away from them.

New Year's Eve

...is the time of the year when all the restaurants and night clubs show their holiday spirit by handing out noise-makers and raising their prices 400%.

They're big, they're brawny, they're Biblical—they're the Samsons, a family of Old Testament toughies who can bring down the house. Head of the clan is dad Hunker Samson, the "Canaan Crusher," whose hobby is slaying heathens with the jawbone of an ass. "Actually," he says, "I use the jawbone of a Philistine, but any dumb animal will do." Constantly getting in trouble is long-haired son Beef Samson ("Eat my curls!"), who likes punching out camels and destroying any village with a name he can't pronounce. Beef lusts for a girl-friend, but he's yet to learn that arm-wrestling doesn't make for successful foreplay. It's a half-hour of Holy Land hilarity, Mondays on ABC.

THE BLIMPSONS

Move over, Roseanne! The Blimpsons—all 985 pounds of them—have arrived to fatten up the new season with gags by the gross. It's worth the weight as Barge—she's the gourmet of the family—serves up aged oxen under glass, thereby aiding the diet of husband Hogger, who's trying to bloat up to a respectable 350. To maintain her beachball figure, Barge waddles in to her beautician's for a four-hour flab-fold and hydraulic body-waxing. As she says, "A family that's gross together, stays close together," which isn't all that difficult, considering they live in an RV. You'll eat it up Tuesdays on NBC.

TOON AGE MUTANTS DEPT.

Once a TV show is hot, it's only a matter of time before a rip-off of the original, celebrated animated series. With this in mind,

SIMPSON WE'LL UNDOUBT

ARTIST: SAM VIVIANO

THE SIMIANS

Searching for the "missing link" to primetime comedy? Then make way for the Simians, a cockamamie cave-dwelling clan of Misozoic misfits. "Evolution sucks," grunts eight-year-old Blog, whose favorite sport is granny-knotting the prehensile tails of troglodyte girls. This upsets sister Weeza, who looks forward to when she'll grow hair all over and be "a real woman." There's more pre-hysterical madness when club-swinging Humonga (he's a plus-16 handicapper) saves mate Mog from the clutches of an amorous iguanodon, then topes into a volcanic geyser and invents bathing. Catch all the howling Sundays on NBC.

THE SAMISENS

Have a yen for laughs? Then prepare for the nutty, Nipponese, totally dis-Oriented world of the Samisens. You'll meet young Bot-san, a Ninja dropout, who celebrates the anniversary of Pearl Harbor by exploding a sushi bomb in Dad Homa-san's kimono. Dad encourages Bot-san to take up hari-kiri ("Keep trying—you'll get the hang of it"). Trying to keep the peace is wife Moj-san, who dutifully serves up meals of microwaved kelp while still clinging to her life-long dream of being a Sumo roadie. Making its bow Fridays on CBS.

THE SYMPTOMS

Here come the Symptoms, as klutzy a crew of clinical cut-ups as ever invalidated an invalid. Boasting the lowest operating rates in town ("We Hack and Slice at Half the Price!"), the staff is headed by chief surgeon Tumor, who constantly loses his patients, especially when young intern Botch shows off his enema-bag juggling during a hernia transplant. Head nurse Manga takes pride in her collection of gallstones ("The blue ones make exquisite earrings!") and sings spirituals to ease the pain whenever the anesthetics run out. "I love practicing medicine," boasts Tumor, "and I'll keep practicing till I get the hang of it!" Catch the fever Thursdays on ABC.

THE SIMPSEONES

Ready for a hit? Then take a wild shot with the Simpseones, the Mafia's First Family of disorganized crime. Head of the clan is Godfather Don Homero, who loses what little respect he has when he starts hijacking garbage trucks ("I'll make them an offer they can't refuse for their refusal"). He's aided by his young, blood-crazed capo, Barf, who's been declared an illegal substance by the Feds and shows his muscle by snapping the heads of small birds and putting out contracts on relatives he hates having to kiss. Barf does his killing in the local deli, where, as he puts it, "They can sleep with the knishes!" Taking over Wednesdays on CBS.

Sure, everyone's heard of Albert Einstein. We all know who Leonardo DaVinci is. Even Sparky Anderson is a household name. But what about folks like Hecky Peckersmith, Waldo Zipper and

ANY PINHEAD CAN stubbornly stick to traditional records in the age of CDs....

ANY IGNORAMUS CAN make goofy sounds to entertain his friends...

BUT IT TAKES A GENIUS TO make goofy voices and sounds, claim it's a 3000 year old Mongol warrior, and have saps pay big bucks to watch him "channeling"!

ARTIST: RICK TULKA

ANY MORON CAN yell about kneejerk, no-lose "issues" such as flag burning or badly sung national anthems that don't really hurt anyone....

BUT IT TAKES A GENIUS TO make so much noise about those things that he gets you to ignore the problems that really hurt people!

ANY DOOFUS CAN bore his friends with idiotic home movies of his brain-damaged children falling on their heads...

ANY SCHMUCK CAN look the other way while his buddies scar the earth by dumping sludge and nuclear waste hither and yon...

ANY CRETIN CAN foolishly decide to shelf the soda that's been selling just fine for 100 years and replace it with some new flavor...

ANY FOOL CAN be so creatively empty that he just rips off old movies and TV shows for his own TV shows and movies...

Caprice, I've noticed that you speak in a boring monotone, lack any sense of humor, show absolutely no emotion and still feel feelings of love or romance!

What do you know about serial killers?

Not too much, except that Nut 'N Honey makes me go all day!

Not cereall Serial! For months we've been hunting for Bugaboo Bill, a sicko who skins his victims! Through clever case-work, we've determined he's somewhere in the Western Hemisphere! Only one man can help us catch him—the infamous Doctor Cannibal Specter—the savage and convicted people eater!

EWE SLAUGHTER BE IN PICTURES DEPT.

And so begins another movie which features bloody killings, creepy psychos and the consumption of human flesh. If this is the type of action you crave, then you're going to love the acting in:

the violence of the hams

Welcome to hell! We keep the real crazies down here! The drugs of society! The violent psychos!

Over there is "VHS Vinny"? He went on a cross-country spree renting video tapes and then returning them before rewinding!

Nest is "Crazy Carl"? He smuggled 500 tons of cocaine!

That's illegal but it's not crazy!
He smuggled it INTO Colombia!

Finally, there's Cannibal Specter, once a brilliant psychiatrist who delved deep into the human mind! Then he acquired a different taste!

Oh really, what was that?

The human body—SAUTEED!

Agent Stalking,
you're probably wondering why I eat my victims!

Because you like exotic foods?

No, because I'm a humanitarian! By eating each other, we can reduce over-population and get rid of world hunger, too!

Why do you keep staring at me?

Slim people turn me on!

You like their looks?

No, their protein content! I avoid fatty foods. They're loaded with cholesterol!

That's all for today!

But I need your help in tracking down Bugaboo BILL!

I'm sorry, but your hour is up!

I should have known! Once a psychiatrist, always a psychiatrist!

Any luck
finding out about Bugaboo
BILL?

We now know he's a male between 15 and 80,
weighing over 100 pounds and good with his hands! He lives somewhere north of Mexico!

Great! I can feel the net closing in around him!

We found this butterfly in the throat of Bugaboo Bill's latest victim!

That's no butterfly.
That's a Roseanne-Head Moth. It swells up to an enormous size until the victim gags on it!

Bugaboo Bill's just kidnapped
the daughter of a powerful lady Senator! She's making a nationwide appeal on primetime TV. We've got to solve this case fast!

You're concerned
there'll be another killing?

No, she's pre-empting
Major Dad!
I live for that show!

Let me go, Bugaboo Bill, and I won't tell anyone that you're a transvestite killer who kept me starved in a filthy pit until you could kill and skin me! I could really help you!

Help me? How?

Well, for starters, changing your lipstick! It's far too dark a shade for your light complexion! And those tacky, tacky earrings simply have to go!

Don't worry! She's been trained by herself!

That's why I'm worried!

I'm FBI Agent Stalking! I'm looking for a serial killer named Bugaboo Bill! Also, I'm all alone and on my first case!

I'm kind of busy right now, what with a girl screaming in the cellar and Roseanne-Head moths flying around my blood-stained knives and razors! Excuse me while I fetch my handgun!

BANG
BANG!

It's amazing! Bugaboo Bill had you at point blank range, you were completely vulnerable with no light in strange surroundings, yet you managed to kill him!

The Law was on my side!
The Law of Criminal Justice?

The Law of Happy Hollywood Endings!

Hello Caprice! This is Dr. Specter!

Dr. Specter! Where are you?

Far away! You don't have to worry! I won't be bothering you! I just called to say goodbye!

Wait! Before you hang up you have to tell me one thing! Why did Bugaboo Bill do what he did? Why'd he kill all those people???

He did it to impress Jodie Foster -whatever that means!
